Acknowledgment: The family of the late Mary Mc Donnell (nee Connolly), Grattan Park, whose first Anniversary is the 24th of November, would like to send their heartfelt thanks to everyone who supported Mary and her family through difficult times - your acts of kindness have not gone unnoticed. From Paddy, who is extremely grateful, and from his family who have found great comfort in knowing he is surrounded by such a wonderful community, we would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to the community of Grattan Park and Derrinturn. To all the staff in Ryan's Pharmacy, who provided great care and friendship to Mary over the years - thank you. To Paula and all the doctors and staff in Derrinturn Health Centre, who provided great care and support for Mary - thank you. To Anne Coyne, for her many visits, support and chats she provided to both Mary and Paddy during Mary's final years - thank you. To Robert Bergin, the Bergin family, and all the staff in Bergin's Foodstore, for their utmost support during that difficult time and continued support - thank you. To all the staff of Centra and the post office, for their support - thank you. To Fr. Fitzpatrick, for his kindness, support, and thoughtful service - thank you. To all the staff in the Moat ward of Naas hospital for their utmost care for Mary in her final days and remembering her in their remembrance service - thank you. To Donal Hanley, who was with us in mams final moments, providing great comfort, and helped us to navigate such a difficult time - thank you. To Pat Larkin, for all his support, empathy and care in ensuring we were able to give Mary the remembrance she deserved - thank you. Finally, we wish to thank our very special friends Mark and Philomena for always going above and beyond for our parents and being a wonderful friend to Paddy - thank you. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered up for your intentions.
